THE JOURNAL OF THE BLACK CATHOLIC THEOLOGICAL SYMPOSIUM

Volume Two          October 2008

LETTERS
Cyprian Davis, O.S.B.  1
From the Editor’s Desk

Kimberly Flint-Hamilton  3
Thirty Years of Fellowship: A Retrospective

ARTICLES
Cyprian Davis, O.S.B.  11
1807-2007: Whose Bicentennial and Whose Abolition?

Bryan Massingale  31
Racial Reconciliation in Christian Ethics:
Toward Starting a Conversation

Cecilia Moore  59
The Sources and Meaning of the Conversion of Claude McKay

Kimberly Flint-Hamilton  81
‘Poor Fools, Nothing But Bellies’ (Theo 26-27)
Eating Imagery in Hesiod as Personification of Oppression

COPYRIGHTED MATERIAL
Nicholas Creary

Robert Bartlett
The Implications of Critical Race Theory (CRT) On Two Significant Findings of a Study of Black Catholics on the Social Frontier

REVIEWS

Nilson, Hearing Past the Pain: Why White Catholic Theologians Need Black Theology (K. Flint-Hamilton)
Giddings, Ida, A Sword Among Lions: Ida B. Wells and the Campaign Against Lynching (C. Davis, O.S.B.)